

Foot Injuries

Questions 21–26

Choose the correct letter, A, B or C

21. John and Cath's presentation plans are different in

- A. the examples used.
- B. the order of information.
- C. the main points made.

22. What do the students agree about the anatomy section of their presentation?

- A. It would be better if Cath spoke about it.
- B. It should be kept quite short.
- C. It should be based on information from the internet.

23. What do the students agree to include in the last section?

- A. visuals of injuries
- B. demonstrations of treatment
- C. interviews with patients

24. What is said about the different types of heel injury?

- A. Diagnosis is straightforward.
- B. They are expensive to treat.
- C. Some are more serious than others.

25. On the subject of causes of heel injuries, the students agree to

- A. focus on a single reason.
- B. reject certain approaches.
- C. use a source written by their professor.

26. What does Cath say about stretching as a treatment?

- A. It is potentially risky.
- B. It is commonly confused with strengthening.
- C. It is the least effective part of treatment.

Questions 27 and 28

Choose TWO letters, A-E.

Which TWO treatment techniques did the female runner find useful for her swollen heel?

- A. massage
- B. ultrasound
- C. rest
- D. balancing exercises
- E. ice

Questions 29 and 30

Choose TWO letters, A-E.

Which TWO sports did the male sprinter find most effective during his rehabilitation programme?

- A. swimming
- B. weight-training
- C. running on grass
- D. cycling
- E. jumping

A
B
B
C
A
A
A
C
B
D