

Questions 31-40.

Complete the notes below.

Write ONE WORD ONLY for each answer.

Reintroducing the Beaver Population to Britain

Background

- Beavers were once native to Britain but were hunted extensively for their fur, meat, and a substance used in 31. _____.
- One of the key concerns about reintroducing beavers is ensuring their long-term 32. _____ from illegal hunting and predators.
- The beaver's 33. _____ plays an important role in regulating its body temperature and helping it swim efficiently.

Ecological Impact

- The movement of beavers across different water systems is often compared to seasonal 34. _____ seen in other animal species.
- A secretion from beavers was historically used in 35. _____ production due to its strong scent.
- Some people opposed beaver reintroduction, claiming that their dam-building activities might cause 36. _____ for local communities.

Environmental Benefits

- The presence of beavers in an area has been linked to an increase in 37. _____ as people visit to observe these animals.
- Beaver dams can help prevent 38. _____ by slowing down water flow and storing excess rainwater.
- The ponds created by beaver activity improve water quality by reducing 39. _____ levels, benefiting local ecosystems.
- Beavers contribute to biodiversity by creating habitats for fish, birds, and 40. _____, which thrive in their modified environments.

transport protection tail migration perfume headaches tourism flood nitrogen insects