

Questions 31-40.

Complete the notes below.

Write ONE WORD ONLY for each answer.

Early gold mining in the Otago region, New Zealand

Background

- 1852: there was a brief gold rush.
- Late 1850s: local governments offered a 31. _____ to experienced gold prospectors.
- May 1861: miner Gabriel Read found gold in a 32. _____.

Who took part in the gold rush?

- Mainly young single men or men leaving families at home.
- Women opened 33. _____ for the miners.
- Businessmen offered services, e.g. hardware stores and 34. _____.

What were early mining towns like?

- At first, the buildings were made of canvas and timber, and later 35. _____.

What difficulties did miners face at the gold fields?

- The freezing temperatures and unexpected 36. _____.
- A poor diet of tea and 37. _____.

What benefits and problems did gold bring to the Otago region?

Growth of the Otago town of Dunedin led to complaints about:

- The increasing price of 38. _____.
- Problems with sanitation.

The gold also resulted in:

- Investment in shipping.
- The first New Zealand 39. _____.
- The need for experienced workers, in particular 40. _____.

reward

river

hotels

banks

concrete flooding

flour

land

university

engineers