

Questions 31-40.

Complete the notes below.

Write NO MORE THAN TWO WORDS for each answer.

History of Music in Britain

In the 18th century

- During the Industrial Revolution people moved to cities to work in the 31. _____.
- In the 1850s, the culture was influenced greatly by 32. _____ from different countries.
- Originally music reflected the work life of different 33. _____ in those days.
- Different songs were created in the same 34. _____, although people were from a variety of nations.
- The songs written by the workers during this period mainly came from their feelings about harsh 35. _____.
- Some small musical works were composed by people who were protesting against difficult living conditions.
- The musical trends were led by 36. _____ performers.

In the 19th century

- During this period, some musical groups had expanded their popularity among 37. _____.
- In the late 1870s, the 38. _____ came into contact with these flourishing musical traditions.
- Some music produced by these groups is still preserved in museums.

Nowadays

- These musical genres still exert an influence on 39. _____ culture.
- Enthusiastic fans are still collecting and keeping the 40. _____ of music from those days.

factories
immigration industries language jobs young audiences/the poor middle class classical recordings