

Questions 31-40.

Complete the notes below.

Write ONE WORD ONLY for each answer.

Human Memory

Early Cultures:

- Before 3000 BC, people were unable to 31. _____ so they relied on memory.
- Memory helped with navigation and family history.
- People used memory to identify dangerous foods, such as some types of 32. _____.

Ancient Greeks

- Simonides believed that memories linked to a 33. _____ are easier to recall.
- In the 1st century, Greeks believed the senses, especially 34. _____, could help memory.

Ancient Romans

- Making a good 35. _____ depended on memory.
- From 100 BC, they developed techniques to improve memory. Cicero believed people have a memory that can be developed, in addition to their 36. _____ memory.

Later European History

- Scholastics used earlier memory techniques to teach 37. _____.
- In the 17th century, people believed 38. _____ could provide explanations.
- In the 19th century, schoolchildren learned facts, such as 39. _____, using repetition.

Modern Times

- In the 1940s, important research on "S", who worked as a 40. _____, but people started to rely on computers.

write plants place sight speech natural religion science dates journalist